

Winery Equipment/Supplies Resource List*

Presque Isle Wine Cellars
9440 W. Main Rd. (US Rt. 20)
North East, PA 16428
(800)488-7492
www.piwine.com
email: info@piwine.com

Doug and Marlene Moorhead and their ever expanding crew are great to work with, helpful and very reliable suppliers of just about everything for the winery business.

G.W. Kent
3667 Morgan Rd.
Ann Arbor, Michigan 48108
(800) 333-4288
www.gwkent.com
email: info@gwkent.com

Great selection of high quality variable capacity tanks plus lots of other stuff you will want/need, including barrels, crusher-destemmers, pumps, etc. Very easy to work with. I have about fourteen tanks from them and have always had good vibes from these folks.

The Compleat Winemaker
955 Vintage Ave.
St. Helena, CA 94574
(707) 963-9681
www.tcw-web.com

Lots of good stuff, including pumps, presses, bottling equipment, great quick-couple hose connectors, corks, etc. I have always had good luck ordering from these folks, prompt, accurate and friendly.

Waterloo Container Co.
Rt. 414
Waterloo, N.Y.
(315)539-3922
www.waterloocontainer.com

Bottles, Bottles, Bottles (plus shipper boxes, capsules and corks). I have ordered (along with several other area wineries) lots of bottles from these guys and they are very nice to deal with.

* Prepared by: Alan Dillard, Limestone Creek Winery, Jonesboro, IL 62952

World Cooperage

www.worldcooperage.com

Midwest Sales: Yuri DeLeon

(707) 396-9874

Very good source of oak barrels and barrel alternatives. Many choices and good technical assistance, plus relatively good prices.

Scott Laboratories

2220 Pine View Way

PO Box 4559

Petaluma, CA 94955-4559

www.scottlab.com

(707) 765-6666

A great selection of yeasts, nutrients, M/L bacteria, and many other additives for improved wine quality. Their catalog alone is a great primer on the importance of healthy yeast to a fault free fermentation. Get the catalog, study and then use the right stuff for the job. It will make a difference in your wines, for sure.

St. Patrick's of Texas

1828 Fleischer Dr.

Austin, TX 78728

www.stpats.com

(512)989-9727

Lots of equipment, including crusher de-stemmers, presses, hoses, stainless fittings, pumps, (must and wine transfer, some in single phase!), etc., etc. When you shop for any of this stuff, you should include this place.

This is my personal list, and is not all-inclusive, but you should be able to stock up on anything for a small winery with these suppliers, and I have always been happy with their services.